

Wyoming AGvocacy Week Essay Competition

Calling all FFA Members to participate in the Agriculture Advocacy Week Essay competition and tell the agriculture story!

- Write your essay by responding to this statement and question: By 2056, the world population is expected to swell to more than 9 billion people. What answers can agriculture provide in sustaining the world over the next 40 years? Essays should be between 250 and 500 words and capture the spirit of being an advocate for agriculture. How you address the topic is entirely up to you. Be creative and write from the heart!
- Submit your typed essay as a PDF file to State FFA Advisor Stacy Broda at sbroda@yahoo.com. Please include your name, chapter, grade in school, e-mail address and phone number.
- Win! The winning essay will be chosen by a panel of judges from the agriculture industry. The top essay writer will receive a $100 prize, donated by Teresa and Ben Milner. The winning essay will also be printed in the Wyoming Livestock Roundup during National FFA week and receive other recognition at the 2016 Wyoming FFA State Convention.
- Other exceptional essay excerpts may be featured on the Wyoming FFA Facebook page and web page, as well as used in future public relations work.
- Entries must be the original work of a current Wyoming FFA member.
- Deadline for entries is February 3, 2016, at 5 p.m. MST. Entries must be submitted in their entirety by the deadline.

“Eating is an agricultural act.”

— Wendell Berry